SUGGESTIONS FOR WEDDING MUSIC

These are only a few possibilities, but may give you an idea of what to choose. Of course you may also leave the music selection completely up to us if you like. Usual requirements are one processional, two pieces for signing the registry and one recessional.

Part of Ceremony	Composer & Piece	Mood created
Processional (entering)	Wagner - Bridal Chorus (this is the traditional "Here Comes the Bride" piece)	festive, triumphant
	Clarke - Trumpet Voluntary	bright, triumphant
	Handel - Arrival of the Queen of Sheba	very excited, festive
	Pachelbel - Canon in D	calm, stately
	Boccherini - Minuet	light, joyful
	Bach - Double Violin Concerto (II)	very serene, lyrical
	Purcell - Rondo from Abdelazer	stately, triumphant
	Adams - Everything I Do	rock ballad
	Paul Kelly - Summer Rain	calm, very romantic
	Signing of Registry	Bach - Air on the G string
Bach - Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring		hymn-like
Bach-Gounod - Ave Maria		contemplative
Borodin - Nocturne		peaceful, dreamy
Schubert - Ave Maria		contemplative
Haydn - Serenade		light, calm
Mozart - Divertimento in D		lively, bright
Trad. - Amazing Grace	peaceful
